

Don't miss it Saturday, November 27 at 6 pm in the Haas Auditorium!

The BU Program Board and U Bloom PR Firm presents...

...Temple Grandin

LIVE at Bloomsburg University!

Temple is one of the most gifted and recognizable adults with autism in the world. She couldn't speak until she was four years old. Now, she has become a well-known author and speaker on the subject of autism. She is an example of how much people can accomplish despite their disabilities. So whether you are interested in Temple's story because of your major or if you know someone with autism... you can't miss this once in a lifetime opportunity!

Free with your Bloomsburg ID card or five dollars for non-students guests.
